H. T. G. M. CLUB MEETS.

The young ladies' H. T. G. M. Club met at the home of the Misses Berry, at 1211 Jefferson street, last Tuesday evening. Eight members were present. The president, Miss Mollie Berry, presided. Miss Badger was appointed chairman of a Committee on By-Laws. The committee was instructed to draw up the By-Laws and submit the same to the club at the next meeting. The president asked the secretary to notify all the members to be present at the meeting, which will be held at the residence of Miss Alberta Davis, on Tuesday, June 25. The club will then begin a series of games of whist.

DELIGHTFUL OCCASION.

Mr. and Mrs. Rivers, of Cowan street, gave a very delightful entertainment Wednesday night in honor of Miss B. S. Oliver, of Kansas City, Mo. The parlor and dining room were elaborately decorated with roses and lilacs. After every one had enjoyed themselves socially four courses were served. Those present were Misses Sarah Brown, Anna Ramsey, Letha McCage, Estella Kittrell, Amanda Oliver, Mrs. Ike Hooper, W. H. Richardson, L. Shivers, Wm. Denning, Mrs. T. W. Kittrell, J. Lillard, Dr. B. Woodson, L. Fleming, Wm. Denning, Ike Hooper, Rev. Wm. Braley, W. H. Richardson and Lattimore Shivers.

OFF FOR WILBERFORCE.

On Monday and Tuesday mornings many of Nashville's leading divines took their departure for the "Buck Eye" state, en route to Wilberforce, Ohio, to attend the commencement exercises of Wilberforce University, and the Bishop's Council of the African Methodist Church.

Those leaving Nashville were Bishop Evans Tyree, of 15 North Hill street, and Rev. A. Gordon, of Texas, who was the Bishop's guest the latter part of last week; Rev. I. H. Welch, presiding elder in the Tennessee Annual Conference. Dr. W. D. Chappelle left on Tuesday, having been detained by some urgent business at the A. M. E. Church Sunday School Union, of which he is the Secretary and Treasurer.

Wilberforce University is one of the leading institutions of learning in the country, and is rapidly growing in prominence. Only recently a syndicate purchased a large tract of land near the campus and a township has been opened up. Fine residences are being erected and henceforth a regular town will be known as Wilberforce.

A large class of graduates is turned out from the University annually, and they always prove equal to the demands of the times. Wilberforce University is the oldest institution of learning owned and operated by the A. M. E. Church, having been established by the late Bishop D. A. Payne shortly after the war.

MASONS HOLD ANNUAL SESSION IN JOHNSON CITY.

The thirty-seventh annual Grand Communication of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Tennessee is in session at Johnson City, Tenn. A large delegation went up from Nashville. The party went in a special coach from here to the seat of the convention. Those attending from Nashville are W. S. Thompson, Grand Secretary; W. T. Hightower, Grand Treasurer; Richard Fleming, J. H. Adams, J. A. Ewing, Joseph Gibbs, Marcus Parker, Pryor Williams, Chas. Hendley, W. S. McEwen, Shed Killen, T. B. Hardiman, J. W. Grant, J. W. Childress, W. P. Rose, Chas. Maxwell, Mrs. Hattie Hightower, Mrs. A. P. Wood, Mrs. Eliza Adams, Mrs. Sallie Thompson, Mrs. T. W. Haigler, Mrs. M. L. Kelly, of Clarksville, joined the Nashville delegation, as did Prof. J. H. Kelly, of Columbia. Rev. Preston Taylor went over to wind up the Orphan Home business. It will be remembered that the Masonic Grand Lodge bought a large tract of land and buildings last year on the Lebanon turnpike, 3 miles from the city, just opposite Greenwood Park and Mr. Taylor made the purchase for the Grand Lodge.

Rev. Nelson McGavock, who was the first Grand Master of the Order in this state, and who served ten years as such, could not attend this session. He is Grand Chaplain for life, and has only missed two sessions during the thirty-six years' existence of the Grand Lodge. He was too feeble to attend.
